Warning:

Since a cartridge is extremely precision made, please make sure following:

- Make sure the power switch is OFF, then insert your "Raiden Trad" cartridge. Do not insert or remove a cartridge while the power switch is on. It may cause damages to the system.
- Do not touch a terminal part of a cartridge. It may also cause damages.
- When you play a game, it may be bad to your eyes to play a game continuously for long hours. To avoid tired eyes, it is suggested to take a break after one hour or so. Also make sure to keep a distance from TV screen.
- As the best way to store cartridges, keep cartridges from excessively high or cold temperature places. Don't expose a cartridge to direct sunlight, or keep away from any heater or humid areas.

Warning to owners of Projection Television:
Still pictures or images may cause permanent picture tube damage or make phosphor of the CRT. Avoid repeated or extended use of video game on large-screen projection television.

STAGES:

Raiden taking off from a gigantic aircraft carrier.

At last, the time has come to challenge the invading enemy.

STAGE-1

Country side scenes. Lakes. Mountains.

Only until yesterday, people were enjoying their peaceful life in these areas, however, the war turned these areas into battlefields.

STAGE-2

Aerial views over the ruined metropolis.

There are no sign of people all over the metropolis.

However, there is a sign that the enemy has already constructed many elevated highways as their military supply roads.

STAGE-3

The Ocean

The enemy has also constructed the oceanic fortress on the ocean.

Unless the enemy aircraft-carrier is destroyed, the enemy's fighting power can not be reduced.

STAGE-4

Ancient Ruins

The enemy converted ancient ruins into their military base, but it is incomprehensible why the enemy has chosen this particular site.

There is a huge underground apparently used as GHQ, and a mysterious symbol mark shown on the fortress.

We wonder what this symbol is signifying.

STAGE-5

Enemy fortress under construction

The enemy fortrees is under construction at their front line.

Since the fortress is still under the construction, either offensive or defensive facillties are not fully functioning.

STAGE-6

A floating contient

A beautiful floating continent in the outer space.

There are all kinds of fossiles of strange shaped animals and also even man-made objects which created huge creators when they clashed on this floating continent.

The enemy also seems to be conducting their surveillance.

STAGE-7

Flying over enemy air space

Flying over the enemy's gigantic offensive station.

The enemy's stronghold must be near.

Fierce fighting in the outer space.

STAGE-8

Continent--Enemy Fortress

This is the enemy's main fortress.

At a glance, this fortress looks similar to another enemy fortress on stage-5 which was still under construction, but since this fortress has been completed, and every facilities are fully functioning, a player will be forced to put up very difficult fight.
